

Amani - Water Harvesting

All buildings have gutters and water tanks at the Amani Center. A heavy rain can be captured for future use.

At Children of Peace School, a large in-ground tank was built and gutters were attached to the roofs.

The gutters direct the water into the water tank where it can be pumped out for use by students.